We are pleased to report that we had a positive proceeds from the 2019 Cincy-Cinco as in every other Cincy-Cinco. We are very proud of this sustained achievement. These proceeds are possible thanks to the generous support of many sponsors recognized here. They not only allowed us to put on a first rate event, they permitted us to achieve very satisfactory proceeds with grants to more than a dozen organizations.

CELEBRANDO 16TH CINCY-CINCO

Mucha Fiesta on Fountain Square

Every year, we strive to bring the best of Latino music, food and fun. People of all ages and backgrounds had the opportunity to enjoy and learn about the rich heritage of Latino culture.

One special aspect to this year's Cincy-Cinco was the return of TACOPOLIS, with over a dozen restaurants offering a wide variety of tacos and "alambres" (Mexican kabobs) as well as Argentinian empanadas, Venezuelan arepas and many other tasty Latin treats. Some of the other attractions included a children's area where they decorated flower pots for their mothers and Saturday afternoon was dedicated to the young children with games, raffles, piñatas, and a parade with all of Cincinnati's favorite mascots.

Gracias to the many organizations like the City of Cincinnati, 3CDC, and our friends at Riverbend Music Center for making it possible to deliver a truly enjoyable event for all. And above all, thanks to our Platinum sponsors P&G and the Kroger Company, and our Gold sponsors Fifth Third Bank and Western & Southern Financial Group for their support. We couldn't have put on such a quality event year in and year out without their full support, along with all other generous sponsors.

Since its inception (16 years ago), proceeds from this Charity Festival have exceeded $453,000 which have been distributed among organizations for their Latino programs.
